

Testimonials

"I have seen the smile on an older person's face when they learn they can stay in their own home with a little help from Mennonite In-Home Care. This work is my ministry, fulfilling my purpose of helping people."

— A Mennonite In-Home Care Employee

"Thank you for the wonderful, compassionate care you provided to Dad. You made the effort to get to know him as an individual..."

— Family of a Client

"I could tell she felt safe and watched over. The caregivers cooked for her, encouraged her, and helped her in so many ways. She and I both appreciated how the caregivers respected her wishes."

— Friend of a Client

"Mom was so fortunate to be surrounded by people who responded to her emotional and mental needs, as well as her physical ones."

A Culture of Care and Respect

We respect the dignity and worth of every individual. We are committed to encouraging independence and freedom of choice.

Our caregivers, CNAs, and RNs are valued and trusted. Our staff members are selected carefully and given excellent training and support throughout their careers. The proof is in our exemplary state survey history.

All Mennonite Village employees go through a screening process that includes:

- Reference Checks
- Criminal History Check
- Pre-employment Drug Screening
- Random Drug Testing
- Tuberculosis Testing
- Oregon State Board of Nursing Check (when applicable)

Employees also receive CPR training, housekeeping instruction, ongoing education, and regular in-services.
